May we continue to work together to create many more wonderful moments and great achievements in the years to come.

Join us to CELEBRATE!!!

When we embrace each other, we not only celebrate this wonderful holiday, but also celebrate our relationship with each other. Because in this season, every warm blessing is so precious, every smile is so moved.

Let's soak in this time of laughter and love and enjoy the miracle of Christmas. May our hearts resonate in this season, celebrate this wonderful Christmas together, and create a warm time that belongs to us.

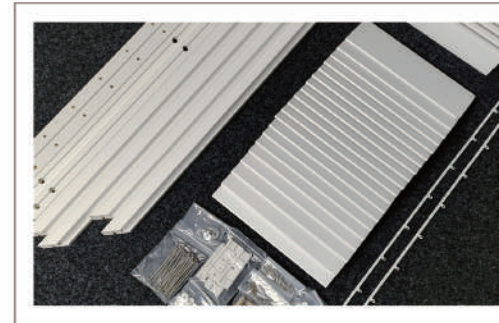

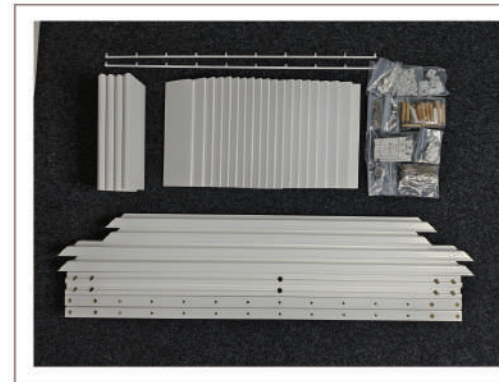

Over the past seven days, we have upgraded the new system version which will significantly improve performance and ensure that our work is smoother. We will introduce some useful new features to improve the efficiency of team collaboration and ensure that our work is more creative and flexible.

NEW PRODUCT

These are the 5 new colors of honeycomb curtains we have launched. We will send out samples in February. If necessary, please contact our sales staff for booking and purchase.

NEW PRODUCT

DIY shutter. We will provide you with all the components and accessories according to your size. We will also punch holes in some parts for installing accessories. We'll pack shutter component in a box, and when you receive it, assemble it according to our instructions.
